Now you are going to see a series of statements from supporters and opponents of building the border wall.

Supporters of the border wall who say we need a wall for safety and security. We need the wall to stop the massive inflow of drugs, crime and human trafficking from Mexico, and Donald Trump is right to do whatever it takes to build it, even if that means going around Congress.

Opponents of the border who wall say the wall would be ineffective and a waste of limited resources. Two-fifths of undocumented immigrants are visa overstayers, and a wall does nothing about them. Officials say most drugs arrive at existing ports of entry, and terrorists have come through our airports - these funds should go towards securing those.
