He continues to ignore health experts and economists and pushed states to reopen too soon, which is backfiring and causing a new surge in infections that is costing even more jobs.....	46%	67%	50%	20%

W17_10. Putting it another way, which of the following is the more important factor for you when judging how Donald Trump is handling the economic recovery?

	July-21	Latest Data by Party

Trump has repeatedly overruled the advice of experts and ignored early warning signs and downplayed the risks from the start. Even as cases surge, he continues to push for a premature reopening, which is worsening the economic devastation of coronavirus and reversing the recovery.	44%	58%	34%	30%
Trump is failing working people who are hurting in this crisis: unemployment is skyrocketing while cases of coronavirus are surging, yet the administration is blocking the extension of unemployment insurance and trying to repeal health care laws which means millions could lose their insurance.	28	37	39	13

Those who say we should renew expanded unemployment benefits because millions of people are still applying for help each week and cutting the incomes of 30 million unemployed people right now would hurt the economy and make it impossible for families to make ends meet during this crisis.	52	69	50	30
