W20_29. As you may know, the United States Postal Service [USPS] is a government agency. Some have argued the USPS is losing money and should be privatized so it can operate more like a business at lower cost to taxpayers. Others say the USPS provides an important public service and privatization would mean Americans in some places might have to pay a premium just to receive mail. When it comes to the Postal Service, who do you agree with more?
