Q58. [SPLIT A] As you just read, one of the policies in the American Rescue Plan is expanding the child tax credit, or a tax cut for most families with children, for this tax year only. Below is a statement from supporters of the child tax credit who would like to make the tax credit permanent:

The American Rescue Plan included an expansion of the child tax credit for families with children, increasing the tax cut from $2,000 to $3,000-$3,600 per child this tax year. Democrats say making this tax cut permanent would cut child poverty in the United States in half. After reading that statement...again, do you support or oppose making the child tax credit for families with children permanent?

Below is a statement from supporters of the child tax credit who would like to make the tax credit permanent:

The American Rescue Plan included an expansion of the child tax credit for families with children, increasing the tax cut from $2,000 to $3,000-$3,600 per child this tax year. Democrats say making this tax cut permanent would deliver critical financial support to families, especially working parents, who are struggling with expenses like childcare. After reading that statement...again, do you support or oppose making the child tax credit for families with children permanent?
