Biden and Democrats say their economic plan is going to cost the American government $0. hey are going to fund their plan by increasing taxes on the wealthy and corporations so they finally pay their fair share. So, while the total cost of the bill's policies may be $3.5 trillion, the net cost to the American government and the American people will be $0.

Biden and Democrats say their economic plan is not going to cost Americans making less than $400,000 a year a penny in new taxes. Instead, they are going to fund their plan by increasing taxes on the wealthy and corporations so they finally pay their fair share. The plan will lower health insurance and prescription drug costs for working families and seniors and make paid leave available to working parents.

Biden and Democrats say their economic plan is going to cost the American government $0. They are going to fund their plan by increasing taxes on the wealthy and corporations so they finally pay their fair share, unlike the Trump tax cuts that gave the wealthiest Americans and corporations massive tax breaks which resulted in a net cost of $2 trillion to the debt.

Q84A. [SPLIT A] As you may know, the United States can only pay outstanding debts for what the federal government is spending up to a maximum, known as America's "debt ceiling." It is expected that the federal government will exceed that debt ceiling in the coming days, and Congress is considering passing a law to raise the debt ceiling so the government can continue paying its obligations. Do you support Congress increasing the debt ceiling?
