Q63. As you may or may not know, presidential records were discovered at Trump's home in Mar-a-Lago. Acting on a tip from a Trump representative, the FBI conducted a search at Mar-a-Lago after a year of seeking voluntary cooperation from Trump and failing to get it, where they retrieved more than 300 classified documents. Donald Trump is being investigated for obstruction of justice for his lack of cooperation as well. Knowing this, how concerned are you about Donald Trump having these classified documents?

Q64. As you may or may not know, a Biden representative discovered 10 classified documents from his time as Vice President and alerted the Department of Justice and the National Archives upon their discovery. Upon learning about these documents, Biden's own Attorney General is now investigating these documents with Biden's full cooperation, and so far has uncovered at least 10 additional classified documents. Knowing this, how concerned are you about Joe Biden having these classified documents?

Q67A. [SPLIT A] Below is a statement. Please read it and then answer the question that follows. Joe Biden had a small number of classified documents that were misplaced at his think tank in Washington and his home in Delaware, which his representatives immediately turned over to the government upon their discovery. Donald Trump, on the other hand, deliberately took hundreds of documents and kept them in an insecure location at Mar-a-Lago, a golf club that people pay to visit, including international figures. How convincing do you find this statement?

Joe Biden voluntarily came forward with his documents as soon as they were discovered and is fully complying with investigations, including the one led by a special counsel appointed by his own Attorney General. Donald Trump refused to cooperate with investigations into him possessing classified documents, tried to deny their existence, and is now even being investigated for obstruction of justice. Q69A. [SPLIT A] Below is a statement. Please read it and then answer the question that follows. Republicans have been up in arms about Biden's discovered documents, but they are hypocrites: what Trump did was worse and a greater security threat, yet they tried to shut down the investigation into his documents repeatedly, stood behind him when he refused to cooperate with any investigation, and repeatedly showed no interest in the issue when he was the one under scrutiny. Republicans have been up in arms about Biden's discovered documents, but they are showing once again their focus on the wrong things and their obsession with trying to score political points instead of doing their jobs. They are focused on Biden's documents and pointless, baseless investigations into things like this instead of lowering costs, creating jobs, and doing what they can to improve the economy.
